

The Cridge
Centre for the Family

University of Victoria

Survive-Strive-Thrive

Stories of Resilience

A one-day workshop on Brain Injury

Wednesday, May 18, 2016

8:30—3:30 David Turpin Bldg, A120

University of Victoria

Free admission — registration required

SST@cridge.org

Refreshments and Lunch provided

Speakers:

Michelle Stilwell: Minister of Social Development, MLA Parksville-Qualicum, gold medal paralympian, thriving after a brain injury

Janelle Breese Biagioni: Grief & loss counselor specializing in catastrophic loss, author & speaker, family member

Evelyne & Rick Early: Thriving Together: 31 years of marriage

Dr. Catherine Mateer: Professor of Psychology (UVIC), thriving after a brain injury

Ellie Ennas: Brain Injury Advocate, thriving after a brain injury

(speakers subject to change)

With opening remarks by The Honourable Judith Guichon, the Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia

Register to reserve your seat: SST@cridge.org
For more information: 250-812-2962 or visit www.cridge.org