

University
of Victoria

Survive-Strive-Thrive

Thriving Through The Shadows

A one-day conference on Brain Injury, Post Traumatic Stress Injury (PTSI), Mental Health, and Brain Health Solutions

5th Annual Conference on Brain Injury

Wednesday, June 20, 2018
9-4 pm Bob Wright Centre, B150
University of Victoria

Free admission — registration required. Email: sst@cridge.org
Refreshments and Lunch provided

Speakers:

Dr. David Musnick: Certified practitioner in Functional Medicine and a member of the teaching faculty at the Institute of Functional Medicine.

Bruno Guevremont: Veteran, Invictus Games Ambassador, Bell Let's Talk Ambassador and Team Canada Captain at the 2016 Invictus Games.

Elizabeth Steeves: Retired member of the Royal Canadian Air Force, member of Team Canada and flagbearer at the 2017 Invictus Games.

Superintendent John Brewer: Serving in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police since 1994 with duties ranging from General Duty to Aboriginal and Community Policing and International Policing in Afghanistan.

Dr. Michael Sorsdahl: Works in private practice specializing in PTSD/trauma therapy, military culture, LGBTQ, career counselling and men's issues.

(speakers subject to change)

Remarks from Trevor & Debbie Greene

Register to reserve your seat: sst@cridge.org
For more information: 250-812-2962
or visit www.cridge.org/bis