SECTION: FINANCE AND FUND DEVELOPMENT
NUMBER: 5.6 - Gift Acceptance Policy
DATE APPROVED: April 12, 2021
RELATED TO: Imagine Canada Standard C12, Risk Management Sec. 7,
CCCC Standard 5.3

The Cridge Centre for the Family encourages, solicits and accepts gifts for purposes that will help the organization further and fulfill its Purpose, either as outright gifts or through such planned giving vehicles as are permitted by Revenue Canada and the laws of the Province of B.C. The following policies and guidelines govern acceptance of gifts made to The Cridge Centre for the Family for the benefit of any of its operations, programs or services.

Use of Legal Counsel

1. The Cridge Centre will seek the advice of legal counsel in matters relating to acceptance of gifts when appropriate. Review by counsel is recommended for:
 - a) Gifts of securities that are subject to restrictions or buy-sell agreements.
 - b) Documents naming The Cridge Centre for the Family as trustee or requiring The Cridge Centre for the Family to act in any fiduciary capacity.
 - c) Gifts requiring The Cridge Centre for the Family to assume financial or other obligations.
 - d) Transactions with potential conflicts of interest.
 - e) Gifts of property which may be subject to environmental or other regulatory restrictions.
2. The Cridge Centre for the Family urges all prospective donors to seek the assistance of personal legal and financial advisors in matters relating to their gifts, including the resulting tax and estate planning consequences.

Gifts Generally Accepted Without Review

1. Cash. Cash gifts are acceptable in any form, including by cheque, debit, money order, credit card, or on-line. Donors wishing to make a gift by credit card must provide the card type (e.g., Visa, MasterCard, American Express), card number, expiration date, and name of the card holder as it appears on the credit card, and the CVV security number.
2. Marketable Securities. Marketable securities may be transferred electronically to an account maintained at one or more brokerage firms or delivered physically with the transferor's endorsement or signed stock power (with appropriate signature guarantees) attached. Marketable securities may be sold upon receipt if directed by the Finance/Audit Committee or recommended by our Portfolio Manager. In some cases marketable securities may be restricted, for example, by applicable securities laws or the terms of the proposed gift; in such instances the decision whether to accept the restricted securities shall be made by the Board of Directors.
3. Bequests and Beneficiary Designations under Revocable Trusts, Life Insurance Policies, Commercial Annuities and Retirement Plans. Donors are encouraged to make bequests to The Cridge Centre for the Family under their wills, and to name The Cridge Centre for the Family as the beneficiary under trusts, life insurance policies, commercial annuities and retirement plans.
4. Charitable Remainder Trusts. The Cridge Centre for the Family will accept designation as a remainder beneficiary of charitable remainder trusts.
5. Charitable Lead Trusts. The Cridge Centre for the Family will accept designation as an income beneficiary of charitable lead trusts.

Gifts Accepted Subject to Prior Review

1. Tangible Personal Property. The CEO shall review and determine whether to accept any gifts of tangible personal property in light of the following considerations: does the property further the organization's Purpose? Is the property marketable? Are there any unacceptable restrictions imposed on the property? Are there any carrying costs for the property for which the organization may be responsible? Is the title/provenance of the property clear?
2. Life Insurance. The Cridge Centre for the Family will accept gifts of life insurance where The Cridge Centre for the Family is named as both beneficiary and irrevocable owner of the insurance policy. The donor must agree to pay, before due, any future premium payments owing on the policy.
3. Real Estate. All gifts of real estate are subject to review by the Board of Directors. Prior to acceptance of any gift of real estate other than a personal residence, The Cridge Centre for the Family shall require an initial environmental review by a qualified environmental firm. In the event that the initial review reveals a potential problem, the organization may retain a qualified environmental firm to conduct an environmental audit. Criteria for acceptance of gifts of real estate include: Is the property useful for the organization's purposes? Is the property readily marketable? Are there covenants, conditions, restrictions, reservations, easements, encumbrances or other limitations associated with the property? Are there carrying costs (including insurance, property taxes, mortgages, notes, or the like) or maintenance expenses associated with the property? Does the environmental review or audit reflect that the property is damaged or otherwise requires remediation?
4. Certain forms of gifts or donated properties may be subject to review prior to acceptance. Examples of gifts subject to prior review include, but are not limited to gifts that would
 - a) result in The Cridge Centre for the Family violating its corporate charter,
 - b) result in The Cridge Centre for the Family losing its status as a not-for-profit organization,
 - c) are too difficult or too expensive to administer in relation to their value,
 - d) result in any unacceptable consequences for The Cridge Centre for the Family, or
 - e) are for purposes outside The Cridge Centre for the Family's Purpose. Decisions on the restrictive nature of a gift, and its acceptance or refusal, shall be made by the Board of Directors, in consultation with the CEO.

Gifts-In-Kind

1. Gifts in kind under $1,000 must be supported by receipts, research or documentation provided by a Manager, with final valuation being determined by the CEO or the Manager of Communication and Fund Development.
2. Gifts in kind valued over $1,000 must be supported by a minimum of two professional estimates or an appraisal by a reputable third party.
