

Internal/External Temporary Posting Transition House Anti-violence Support Worker

OUR MISSION: Providing excellence in support, housing, education and community, we work together to restore hope and a future to those overcoming the challenges before them.

The Cridge Centre for the Family strives to be an exceptional employer by providing our staff with support, flexibility, and a workplace that makes a positive difference in our community. Our benefit package is outstanding, and the work environment is positive and supportive. We commit to thorough on-boarding, which includes substantial orientation, complete training, and support as you integrate into our team.

This position is an integral part of The Cridge Transition House for Women staff team working in cooperation with and reporting to the Manager of Cridge Transition House and Outreach Services. The incumbent must be able to work independently while also collaborating with other team members to provide safe emergency accommodation, support, and information to women and children fleeing relationship violence. The role also includes the provision of day parole services for two Correctional Service of Canada referrals. The position requires a working knowledge of the dynamics of relationship violence and a commitment to empowering, client-centered service delivery.
