Part-time Hybrid Community Support Worker/Direct Care Worker

OUR MISSION: Providing excellence in support, housing, education and community, we work together to restore hope and a future to those overcoming the challenges before them.

The Cridge Centre for the Family strives to be an exceptional employer by providing our staff with support, flexibility, and a workplace that makes a positive difference in our community. Our benefit package is outstanding, and the work environment is positive and supportive. We commit to thorough onboarding, which includes substantial orientation, complete training, and support as you integrate into our team.

This is a part-time hybrid Community Support Worker and Direct Care Worker position. Reporting to the Direct Care Team Leader, the successful candidate will provide person-centred support to adults with acquired brain injuries, assisting with personal care, daily living activities, household tasks, and life-skills development while promoting independence and quality of life. The role includes planning and participating in recreational, leisure, and community inclusion activities, transporting residents to appointments and community programs, and supporting rehabilitation, physiotherapy, medication, and behaviour support plans as developed by the interdisciplinary care team.

The successful candidate will maintain accurate documentation, communicate effectively with residents and team members, and demonstrate experience in activity programming, community-based support, and working collaboratively within a multidisciplinary team. A valid driver's licence and the ability to transport residents are required. Please note that this position requires union membership.
